Greetings!

As Governor, it is a pleasure to offer my congratulations to the Boy Scouts of America upon its 100th Anniversary.

Generations of scouts have learned leadership skills that have served them well in many aspects of their lives. Through hard work, dedication and commitment to excellence Boy Scouts serve their communities and improve the lives of others.

I commend the spirit of leadership of these young people and salute them as shining examples of young citizens.

Best wishes to all the Scouts, leaders and parents who support them along the way as you celebrate this landmark occasion.

Sincerely,

Mitch Daniels
