Greetings Friends:

On behalf of the Great State of Kansas, it is my honor to congratulate the Boy Scouts of America on its 100th Anniversary. I am honored to offer my best wishes for this special occasion.

I commend your organization for its efforts in encouraging young men to become active members in our society by teaching them the value of leadership and service to our communities.

Again, congratulations on the 100th Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America. Best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,

Mark Parkinson
Governor of the State of Kansas
